EAST OF OCCIDENTAL | MARIA GARGIULO 1986 | 34 MIN

Maria Gargiulo is an Emmy award-winning producer/director whose work has appeared on PBS, Fox, CBS, Discovery Channel, and film festivals worldwide. This film documents stories within Seattle's Chinatown International District comprised of Chinese, Japanese, and Filipino Americans through archival photos, oral histories, and interviews.

MAK FAI INSIDER | HAN ECKELBERG 2022 | 16 MIN

Adorned with 10 film festival awards, this film provides an inside look at the Asian American youth who contribute to the community of Seattle's Chinatown. From the preservation of traditions to the support of one's community, Mak Fai Kung Fu Dragon & Lion Dance Association exemplifies the importance of not only martial arts and lion dancing but the appreciation of its foundational culture.

1886 CHINESE EXPULSION | STEWART WONG SEATTLE WATERFRONT ADJACENT TO COMPASS CENTER

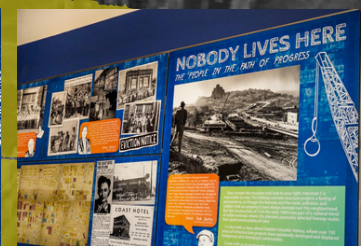

Learn about the 1886 Chinese expulsion in Seattle through local Artist Stewart Wong's upcoming art installation. Wong's inspiration stems from recent concerns about attacks on the AAPI community, addressing these struggles through his creativity and artwork.

NOBODY LIVES HERE

APRIL 7, 2023 - MARCH 17, 2024
NEW DIALOGUES INITIATIVE GALLERY

Nobody Lives Here highlights the displacement of the CID community in the 1960s. This exhibit focuses on the impact that the building of the I-5 freeway had on businesses, homes, and people through research, photos, and oral histories.

Registrants are offered free admission to the Wing Luke Museum. REGISTRATION REQUIRED.

*This exhibit is separate from the screenings & panel previously listed. Free with registration.
